

Next Step

Thinking about the results from your investigation, can you invent something that children who struggle to listen to their teacher could wear to help them hear better?

Draw it below and label it.

How will this help children hear their teacher better?

Next Step

Thinking about the results from your investigation, can you invent something that children who struggle to listen to their teacher could wear to help them hear better?

Draw it below and label it.

How will this help children hear their teacher better?
