

Answers to task one - TYPES OF DETERMINERS

Definite and indefinite articles	Quantifiers	Numbers	Distributive	Possessive adjectives	Demonstrative	Defining words
Example: the a an	Example: all several much every more less any few lots of some enough many little	Example: two five eighteen thirty-one one hundred first second third last next finally	Example: either both all half neither each every any	Example: her our his my your its	Example: this that these those which	Example: what whose their
Example in a sentence: I would like a banana please.	Example in a sentence: Several members of the team arrived early.	Example in a sentence: The second coach will leave fifteen minutes later.	Example in a sentence: Every Monday, we take part in maths club.	Example in a sentence: Their place of worship was just around the corner.	Example in a sentence: Nervous, Emile finally entered those drawings to the art competition.	Example in a sentence: Which pair of pyjamas would you like me to buy for you?

